

Dear Padre,

My Catholic friend says she speaks in tongues and does not feel she needs an interpretation as she does so. She writes down the exchange as she listens to others. What does the Catholic Church say about speaking in tongues? How should I respond if she asks to pray for me in this way?

Good for your friend. A robust spiritual practice is a real grace from God. At the same time, it seems that a gentle reminder, albeit a respectful one, to your friend might include the wisdom of St. Paul. In 1 Corinthians, Paul cautions that the person who speaks in tongues must ask for interpretation of what is spoken so that it may be confirmed. There is real wisdom offered here. It is also helpful to remember that in the Christian understanding of supernatural gifts, such gifts are not intended solely for the individual person but always for the well-being of the community and the common good (1 Cor 12:7). Keeping this integrated and balanced understanding as an essential component of the manifestation of the charismatic gifts of the Holy Spirit will only lead to good and to a more powerful experience of God's grace and life. In the Christian life, it is never about just the individual, but always inclusive of the experience of our brothers and sisters in Christ. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

The Holy Spirit...makes believers attentive to the problems and events of their time.... We run the risk of making a museum piece out of faith...! [The Holy Spirit]...brings...the faith up to date: this is his job. [He] does not bind himself to passing epochs or trends, but brings into today the relevance of Jesus, risen and living.

Spirited Life

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

We are in a time when many seem to live with deep anger, much of which may come from fear generated by a sense of loss of control over our lives. We struggle to control the economy, our borders, the spread of disease, the violence in our cities and on our roads. Places once deemed safe—our schools, stores, and churches—have been invaded by violence. Ironically, those who feel most threatened by violence tend to turn to violence as a solution.

Do the scripture readings on this feast of Pentecost offer any hint of light as to how we might move forward? Saint Paul's Letter to the Romans contrasts living in the flesh with living in the spirit that has been given to us. To "live in the flesh" is Paul's code word for living by our baser instincts—lust for power, revenge, and pleasure; anger; greed—all of which focus on ourselves. By contrast, to live in the spirit is to respond not from our baser instincts but rather to choose a more noble path, to take the high road, to care for the common good. For Paul, living in the flesh is a dead end, unable to bring us to life now or in the hereafter. To live in the spirit is to live in God, already in this life. Thus, Paul cautions that we not "fall back into fear," something that arises from our preoccupation with the flesh. ●

What situations or "triggers" cause me to act out of my baser instincts?

St. Anthony of Padua

He was born in 1195 to a wealthy family in Lisbon, Portugal. By the age of fifteen he asked to be sent to the Abbey of Santa Cruz to be a Franciscan priest. He was noted for his powerful preaching, expert knowledge of scripture and undying love and devotion to the poor and the sick. He was one of the most quickly canonized saints in Church history. He is a Doctor of the Church and is the patron saint of lost things. “Tony, Tony, look around. Something’s lost and can’t be found.” His feast day is June 13th.

Pentecost: This Sunday, June 8th, we celebrate the feast of Pentecost. The term Pentecost comes from the Greek Πεντηκοστή (Pentēkostē) meaning “fiftieth”. It is based on the Jewish Feast of Weeks celebrated 50 days after the feast of First Fruits. But in the Christian tradition it is the feast 50 days after Easter when the Lord, who arose to heaven on the feast of Ascension, sends the Holy Spirit to descend on the disciples in the form of tongues of fire. This gives the disciples to courage to break free of their fears and boldly proclaim the Gospel to all people. Come Holy Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.
